Mentor, Project Lead, Project Manager or any other role, based on the requirement of the employer. Employee's Role/ Remuneration may change based on the employee performance.

Probation: Probation employees are not eligible to avail leaves. Any leaves that would have to be taken would be considered as unpaid leaves. Employees will be on probation for a period of 6 months, after completion of internship. Employee's probation will be extended for a further period of 6 months or part thereof as deemed fit, and Employee would not be deemed to be confirmed unless a confirmation letter is given to Employee in writing. During the Internship and probation period, The Company shall have the right to terminate employee's service with the notice periods as given in following sections.

Termination of Services: You may be suspended or terminated from services if any gross misconduct or under performance is noticed or be involved in negativity spread. Misconduct includes but not limited to not adhering to the company internet usage policy, office culture policy, confidence disclosure policy or any other policies that are laid as companies' policies. Further to this, any conduct which may lead to direct or indirect losses to the business would be dealt under all legal rules in effect and potentially can lead to a court case being pursued against you.

Employee Suspension: Employer has the right to suspend the employee at any point in time for reasons that employer believes there is a misconduct of an employee or observes deliberate under performance or negligence in the work. If the employee is suspended, employee must not to talk to other employees, customers and/or suppliers. Employee can be suspended to the maximum length of 6 months if there is no maximum period that law permits. If there is a maximum specified in the law, that would be used as the maximum length of time employee could be suspended.

Where employee is suspended, employee would still need to abide by the commitment period agreed as part of the termination clause. The period employee is in suspension would need to be compensated to fulfil the commitment period.

Direct Contact with Clients or other related parties: Employee is prohibited from contacting the business customers or any other contacts introduced during employment directly or indirectly with the view of gaining employment or providing services or any other activity that may not be in the business interest of the employer for a period of 36 months after the employment is terminated.

Collecting System Data: A software called 'Activity Tracker' would be installed on the employee allocated system and a comprehensive data would be collected from the system that includes but not limited to screenshots, applications used, length of time spent against various activities and detailed activity records like Screen monitoring etc. This would be used in ways that will help Employers go through measure, monitor and improve employee productivity. All the Employees must complete 8 hours of productive time on the Activity Tracker.

Notice period: During the probation if the employee leaves the company, he/ she will have to refund full salary drawn + cost of training incurred on him/her + any other expenses incurred in relation to the specific employment. There would not be a notice period during the probation from the employer.

The notice period after confirmation, will be 3 months from the employee and one month from the employer. If the employee leaves the company or gives notice to the company before completing the 3 years (unplanned absences or sick absences or unapproved absences would not be included towards the commitment period), employee will have to refund all the incurred costs for the company including recruitment, training and any others as applicable which costs at least 50,000/- rupees along with 4 months of salaries to the day of relieving.

For any reason employee wishes to leave the company during the commitment period, employee is expected to give a minimum of 3 months' notice period along with refunding costs as specified above. On receiving a written request from employee to employer stating the reasons to leave, employer may choose to agree or not agree to reduce the costs to be refunded. The reasons could include falling seriously sick, unable to work, getting married and hence having to shift home, shifting home to a different place, problems to do with colleagues or any other problems. As far possible as Indian law applies, none of the reasons should be an excuse to waive off the commitment period. Employee is not eligible to get benefits and bonuses during notice period. And, all the salary payments would not be paid during the notice period and will be settled as part of the regular payroll of the month where the employee's last day falls in.

During the commitment period, if management observes negligence, willful incompetence or willful misconduct from employee in performing duties, employer at its own choice reserves the right to close the employee contract and still be eligible to collect the costs stated above. However, if the project is business critical and there is no replacement found, company reserves the right until such person is replaced and necessary handovers are completed.

Travel: Employee may be required to travel on Company business within India and or abroad. The duration of such visits may vary, depending upon the nature of the assignment. There are specific rules governing travel, both domestic and international travel. The Company reserves the right to modify such rules from time to time, to meet changing business needs and scenarios.

Letter of Welcome and Role Clarification for New Engineering Team Members

To,

Date: 30th October 2023

Maddineni Srihari S/O Ravi,
Mittapalem,
Kondepi,
Prakasam.
Andhra Pradesh-523273,
Cell No: 9502649972.

Subject: Welcome to Snovasys

Dear Maddineni Srihari,

We hope this message finds you well. We are excited to inform you that you have been selected to join Snovasys as part of our esteemed Engineering Department.

As we embark on this journey together, we would like to outline some important aspects of our recruitment process and your role within our organization.

Joining Date Confirmation

While you will be officially onboarded, we would like to clarify that the exact joining date will depend on the availability of roles within our organization. Currently, we are actively recruiting for various positions, including sales and other roles. The timing of your joining will align with the openings in the Engineering Department.

Joining Prioritisation Process

We believe in a fair and comprehensive joining ordering process. To determine the roles that best suit your skills and capabilities, we will provide you with a set of tasks and assignments to be completed remotely. Your performance in these tasks will be a crucial factor in our joining prioritization process as well as choosing the roles that we would get you started with. Rest assured, we will be fair and provide equal opportunity for every one.

Role Placement

Upon successful completion of the tasks and assignments, we will assign you to a specific role within the Engineering Department based on your strengths and our assessment of your capabilities. Please note that this role assignment may vary, and we will place you where we believe you can make the greatest impact. Our Engineering department encompasses roles like Software Developer in .NET, Angular, React, SQL Server or mix of these roles along with Support department, Customer Development, UI Developer, UI Designer along with QA. We will closely monitor your performance and choose the right role that you get you started with. However, with the time, you may be provided a different role depending on the opportunity in hand, company needs, job suitability along with individual preferences.

Training Approach

At Snovasys, we emphasize on-the-job training as a cornerstone of your development in Engineering department. Rather than traditional classroom training, you will gain valuable experience through practical, hands-on learning opportunities within your assigned role.

We are confident that your journey with us will be both challenging and rewarding, allowing you to grow both personally and professionally. Your dedication and commitment to your tasks will play a significant role in your success within our organization.

Once again, we extend our warmest welcome to you and look forward to your contributions to the Engineering Department at Snovasys. If you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact our HR department at hr@snovasys.com.

Welcome aboard, and let's embark on this exciting journey together.

Sincerely,

Giri Babu Yendluri
